

The Role of Future Years in Yorkshire and Humber

Respondents:

13

	Yes	No	Skipped	Comments
1. Is there a role for Future Years in Yorkshire and Humber?	12	0	1	Essential that the elderly section of communities have a say
2. If not, please tell us why?				0
3. What do you want us to continue?
Workshops	13			Communications for those not able to use computer and modern technology
E-bulletin	12			Meetings
Conference and events	11			Regular meetings
Website	12
4. What issues should we address?
Health and wellbeing	13
Health inequalities	9
Housing	6
Poverty, Fuel poverty and financial issues	10
Isolation and Loneliness	11
Social participation	8
Dementia	10
Civic Engagement	1
Employment	3
Retirement	8
Transport	11
Older Lesbia, Gay, Bisexual and Transgener issues	4
Ethnicity and Ageing	6
End of Life	10
Other	3
• overheating in new builds
• mental health issues
• exercise appropriate to older people
• safeguard all pensions, triple lock benefits, bus passes, winter warmth etc.

5. Who should we engage with?
Local Authorities	11
Health Services	12
Older People's Forums	13
Department for Works and Pensions	9
Charities	12
Businesses	6
Department of Health	11
Centre for Ageing Better	10
Other
• Carers organisations
• Any organisation that is involved with supplying housing services
• The government
• Disablement Action Groups
• We should have contact with local MPs and participate in central government consultations on matters affecting old age.
6. How should we engage?
All forms of communication and by regularly inviting members to participate in meetings or questionnaires
Via events, workshops, research bulletings, surveys etc
In all ways possible to work together for a better life
All forms of communication and by regularly inviting members to participate in meetings or questionnaires
By any appropriate means
Any way possible
Supply of information
In as many ways as possible. Partnership work

